PER  DEPUTY CLERK

Dear Mr. Brann Your Honor sir,

3-3-22

I received your order dated 2-25-22 on March 1, 2022. It states the you denied my motion to compel. This was after you had already sent me an order granting my motion to compel which was dated 2-18-22. I don't understand Your Honor, one minute you granted my motion and then the next you denied it sir. And the reasoning is because the defendants claim they didn't receive my interrogatories, either set apparently. The first set didn't get mailed out until 12-27-21, not the 23rd as I originally thought. The 2nd set was mailed out on 2-7-22 not 2-5-22 as I previously thought. Isn't it possible Your Honor they just might be stalling. For the defense to claim that they didn't receive either set seems a little far fetched to me. I could see not getting one set, but both? And what about my request for production of documents that was mailed out on 1-25-22 Your Honor and also ignored. I have already mailed you a copy of this. Here ^{we are} copies of the cash slips of the 3 items I mailed to the defense.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Murray
